Dear Pearl:

Please forgive the great delay in getting results of the vote on the constitutional amendment to you. They straggled in for a couple of weeks after the deadline, and since we got so few responses anyway, I tried to report as many as possible. To date we received 40 affirmative votes out of 141 ballots mailed out. There were no negative votes.

This seemed like a terribly poor turnout, but Ed seemed to think it was not uncommon.

Hope you had a very nice trip and Christmas vacation and are already to get down to the business of moving. I'm glad it's you and not me. Enclosed you will find the copies of the newsletter you requested.

Very sincerely,

(Mrs.) Nancy J. Kitchen
